

Cairns RSL Memorial Community Benefit Fund

General Information

The Cairns RSL Club is committed to the growth of both individuals and Community-based groups as remembrance of the sacrifice and contribution of thousands of Australian men and women in the Defence Forces since Federation and has developed the Cairns RSL Community Benefit Fund from which eligible individuals or organisations may apply for funding.

The fund provides the opportunity for worthy individuals and community based organisations to seek funding to undertake those aspirations and tasks which they wish to pursue but where additional funding is required to achieve their outcomes. Through this Fund, Cairns RSL Club Ltd is proud to donate, for 2021, a total of $30,000 to eligible individuals and community organisations within the Cairns Regional Council area.

The objective of the Cairns RSL Memorial Community Benefit Fund is to make a difference for successful individual and organisation applicants. Grants may be provided for sporting, academic, artistic or cultural pursuits and to assist recognised community organisations.

1. For Individuals the maximum grant is $1,500 over a consecutive three (3) year period
2. Community groups must be not-for-profit organisations and the maximum grant is $6,000 over a consecutive three (3) year period.

Applications open August 1st 2021, and must be received by Friday 27th September 2021. Successful applicants will be notified by late October 2021 and should be available for a presentation of funds towards end of October or early November, 2021 (date to be advised).

Supporting Information

The Key Objectives of Cairns RSL Community Benefit Fund are as follows:

- Provide support to the ex-Servicemen and Women's community,
- Provide support to projects or recognised service providers that improve the health or welfare of less advantaged community members,
- Support initiatives that increase and broaden the scope of arts, music, sport and cultural participation and development within the local community,
- Support and encourage local community groups who actively participate in the development of community activities,
- Provide support for the development of life skills within the youth of the community,
- Support and develop innovative responses to identified community issues that impact on family life,

- Support initiatives that increase and broaden the scope of sports participation within the local community,
- Provide support to community groups that deliver local community events,
- See specific terms for each stream and application processes for further information.

All applicants must address these key objectives in their submission and endeavour to satisfy three or more of them.

The allocation of funds is for a specific purpose and must be utilised for the purpose for which it is given and shall not be used for any other purpose

Funds will not be granted to organisations raising funds on behalf of others nor will they be granted to initiatives that receive federal or state funding or businesses or organisations for profit making purposes.
